Erin Fordham is an Associate in Tyson & Mendes' Orange County office.

During her time in law school, she served as the President of the Student Bar Association and as student representative to the Alumni Association. She is a member of the California State and San Diego County Bar Associations.

Ms. Fordham earned her J.D. at the Ventura Colleges of Law in 2023. She obtained her B.A. from California Lutheran University in 2011, where she focused on political science and international relations.

In her free time, Miss Fordham enjoys adventuring with her daughters outdoors, reading, and traveling. She also coaches young women's rugby and leads an amazing troop of Girl Scouts.
